Out of competition bitch (1)

Carisma Ein Goldkind

Carisma Ein Goldkind

Carisma has fractured her leg three times. When fractured for the third time, the breeder took her back, since the owner couldn't master the situation. Carisma had been incorrectly treated, but the breeder Andrea Ottersbach succeeded in saving the leg. The leg had started to dissolve and it actually was a matter of life or death. Hence, Andrea Ottersbach is proud to show Carisma in the class out of competition. Of course, Carisma's movements are affected and she can never be shown with competition, but as you can see, she trots quite nicely! :o)

Above. Competition for best bitch- comparing movements. Anabella against Uletta.

Right. Declaration of love! Harry and Belmondo

Prize table

Every year generously sponsored by private persons and partly also by the guesting association. All participants win something! :o) Two prizes were disposed by lottery. One grand basket with food from IKEA and two big bath towels. Every class winner got handmade stationery with flowers and IGs. Everyone got handmade engraved glasses with guess what?! An IG! :o) Made by breeder/commissioner Waltraud Peschges in person.

Entry

A year show always start magnificently with a parade, in this case with IGs. :o) Mostly, there are decorations in the colours of the country in question, or you wear a costume. Friedrich der Große is popular, but unfortunately wasn't present this year. The judges are presented and a Swedish judge was invited to judge saluki and whippet; Karin Hedberg.

We carry our dogs in our hands, or actually, on satin cushions.

The entry - a parade.

Below: Before the show started in earnest, we managed to talk and set the battle strategy.:o)

Windspiel JAS 2005

BOB	Ch Uletta vom Sausewind
BOS	Ch Belmondo Ein Goldkind
Junior - BOB	Adelchi Angelina
Junior-BOS	Ibsen Ileas Ein Goldkind

Without revealing any names here ;o), but you often see the old foxes use an old trick:

you let your experienced, very dominant bitch run up in the behind of the young inexperienced bitch in front, which gets disturbed and moves unbalanced. The old fox has even better luck if the victim is a young male, who will do everything to get a better look of the lovely bitch that sniffs his butt...

No, this is not a pleasant walk together, but is actually during the demonstration for the judge...

You can clearly see how the first bitch arches her back and lowers her flank to show the older bitch that she is friendly.

Finally, I just want to say that it was a fantastic day, and if there are those that aren't content, perhaps they should consider it with some sense of humour :o)

Here is a joke to end with:

Es war wieder ein langweiliger Tag im Himmel. Da griff Gott zum Handy und rief den Teufel an: "Hier oben geschieht nichts aber auch gar nichts," sagte Gott. "Hier auch nicht," sagte der Teufel. "Was hast Du Dir gedacht dagegegen zu tun?" Gott antwortete: "Ich denke, es wäre nicht schlecht eine Hundeausstellung zu arrangieren." "Gute Idee", sagte der Teufel, "aber warum rufst Du dann bei mir an, Du hast doch alle Hunde bei Dir?!" "Das stimmt schon Teufel, aber Du hast alle Richter!"

Translated:

There was another really boring day in Heaven. God grasped his cell phone and called the Devil: "There is nothing going on here, really nothing at all!" said God. "Nothing is happening here either." said the Devil. "What are You planning to do about it?" God answered: "I was thinking, how about arranging a dog show?!" "Not a bad idea" said the Devil, "but why are You calling me, You have all dogs with You?!". "Yes, that's correct, Devil, but You have all the judges!"

So if you are having a really bad day in the ring, you can always remember this joke!
Have a nice day!

Karina Krieger, Dark Legend's Windspiele
